

Our Privacy Statement

1. Use and storage of your personal information

When you supply any personal information to Extra Vision Security, we have legal obligations towards you in the way we deal with that data.

We must collect the information fairly, that is, we must explain how we will use it (see the notices on particular webpages that let you know why we are requesting the information) and tell you if we want to pass the information on to anyone else. In general, any information you provide to the Extra Vision Security will only be used within Extra Vision Security and by its service providers. It will never be supplied to anyone outside Extra Vision Security without first obtaining your consent, unless we are obliged or permitted by law to disclose it.

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as you use the service you have requested, and remove it in the event that the purpose has been met. We will ensure that all personal information supplied is held securely, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

If you are notified on a Extra Vision Security site that your information may be used to allow Extra Vision Security to contact you for "service administration purposes", this means that Extra Vision Security may contact you for a number of purposes related to the service you have signed up for. For example, we may wish to provide you with password reminders or notify you that the particular service has been suspended for maintenance. We will not contact you for promotional purposes, such as notifying you of improvements to the service or new services on Extra Vision Security unless you specifically agree to be contacted for such purposes at the time you submit your information on the site, or at a later time if you sign up specifically to receive such promotional information.

2. Access to your personal information

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information Extra Vision Security holds about you and to have any inaccuracies corrected. Please address requests to: (Email: info@extravisionsecurity.com).
